Discover what research has been taking place in the Uintah Basin at this multidisciplinary conference. Faculty and scientists from the Uintah Basin will present their research findings to the public and discuss how these findings impact our local community.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

10:30 a.m. - Noon

- Controls on Salinity and Related Elements Impacting the Pariette Draw and Wetland, Utah
- Museums, Monuments, and Memory: The Role of Cultural Heritage in the US-China Relationship
- Biogeochemistry of the Pariette Wetland, Utah

Noon - 1:00 p.m.  Lunch will be provided. Poster Presentations on Display.

1:00 - 4:00 p.m.

- A Randomized Trial of a Mind-Body Treatment Program for Domestic Violence Offenders
- Travelling Wave Electrophoresis for Microfluidic Separations
- Transport and Fate of Mercury in the Atmosphere
- The Transition to Licensed Teacher: Exploring Pre-service Internships in a Distance Education Program
- Functional Constraints and the Evolution of TTX-Resistance in TTX-Bearing Salamanders
- Waterfowl Population Trends, Pariette Wetlands, Utah 1980-2010

VISIT OUR 100 YEAR OLD PLANT SPECIMEN COLLECTION AT THE HERBARIUM OPEN HOUSE

9:30 - 10:30 a.m.
Room 234, BEERC